

June 24 (Wed) MIRAI CREA 2F Conference Room

16:05 Open / 16:20 Screening Start / 18:30 End

※ Optional free discussion until 19:00

【Capacity】 Approximately 100 participants

【Regislation】 Advance registration required
(Scan the QR code to register →)

August 10 (Mon) J305, Faculty of IAS

12:50-14:50 Screening / 14:50-15:00 Break /

15:00-15:30 Discussion / 15:30-16:20 Director's talk

【Who Should Attend?】

Anyone interested in issues related to diversity

On-Demand Streaming : from June 20 to 26

※ The streaming URL and password will be distributed later via Momiji and Iroha.

Eligibility: Hiroshima University students and staff

Film Screening “Angry son”

Film Screening (English Subtitles included) + Discussion

【Synopsis】

Jungo, a high school student living in Ota City, Gunma, lives with his Filipino mother Reina, who works at a Filipino pub. He has never been told anything about his father, and the monthly child support payments are the only connection he has to him.

Jungo is in a relationship with Yusuke, who hopes they can form a legal partnership. However, Jungo struggles to move forward because he feels insecure about his background.

One day, Reina brings home a man she hopes to marry. Unwilling to live with a stranger, Jungo decides to search for his biological father...

Admission Free

Official HP

Images and synopsis courtesy of the official website of Angry son.

Hosted by : The Institute for Diversity & Inclusion, Hiroshima University / Gender Club SEI!!! / Hiroshima LGBTs Club Light

© Angry son Production Committee